WILLARD DELUGED WITH MANY OFFERS

Chicago, April 8.—Jess Willard was deluged today with a flock of offers, totaling $9,000, just for his appearance, either as a referee or an actor. The big fellow turned them all down, "The wife is sick and I want to stay home for a while anyhow," said Jess.

Tom Ryan of Toronto offered Will.

Tom Ryan, of Toronto, offered Wil-lard $1,500 to referee a fight. Charlie Murray, of Buffalo, and Wal-ter Duffy, of Boston, went over that fig-ure, just to have the champion show himself for half an hour for exhibition purposes. Toledo also made a fat offer. Lou Derlicher, of New York, wired an offer of $2.000. He wanted Willard to referee a fight in Gotham.

New York, April 8.-Harry Wills, the New Orleans negro heavy-weight, will exhibit his wares against John Lester Johnson in a ten-round bout at the Harlem Sporting Club tomorrow night. Charley Hauser, a protege of Benny Leonard, and Billy Dempsey, will cross gloves in the other ten-rounder.

ENTRIES CLOSE TODAY FOR JAMAICA STAKES

New York, April 8.-Entries for the Jamaica Stakes, which close today, have been coming in rapidly, and Secretary Edwards, of the Metropolitan Jockey Club, believes these events will fill far Th better than last year. Twelve stakes in all will be decided at the two meetings held at the Jamaica course, five at the first and seven at the second.

Secretary Edwards has also announced that all the purses would be raised this summer and one free selling race programmed each day. This means all races where a $5 entrance fee is charged will have a value of $500, $600 or $700. The have a value of $500, $600 or $700. The free entrance race will have a value of $400, and will be framed for the lower grade of selling platers.

On the opening day of the Jamaica meeting there will be an increase of $1.200 in purses over the initial day last year. This liberality will continue throughout the session, and there will be more than a $4.000 increase over last year's mark in purse distribution.

ROYALS SHOOT CANDLES

Local A. C. B. A. Body To Hold Meeting.

President Harvey T. Rogers, of the District Chapter of the Atlantic Coast Bowling Association, has called a meeting of this body for next Sunday morning to be held at Camp Emery for the purpose of electing the local delegates to a meeting of the national body to be held on Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the Metropolitan Hotel.

By JOHN A. DUGAN.

Yesterday was the day for smashing high marks in the Atlantic Coast Bowl-ing tournament. Quite a few changes were made in the singles and doubles in were made in the singles and doubles in both the tenpin and duckpin classes, but the twenty-two teams which rolled in two squads last night failed to dislodge the Marquette team of the Knights of Columbus League from first position at

The nearest total to the 1,515 hung up by the Marquettes on Friday night was made by the Velvet Kind team, of the National Capital League, when they hit the maples for a count of 1.499, which gives them second position in the duckpln team standings. The Palace team also showed good form and came through with a team set of 1.476, which thes the with a team set of 1,476, which ties the Miller Brothers' German Cafe, of Balti-more, for third honors. Although the Portland A. C., from Portland, Me., and the Goodnow Annex Portland, Me., and the Goodnow Annex team, of Boston, Mass., are two crack teams at the candlepin game in New England, they found a tarter in the local Royal team. The New York avenue outfit smashed the long pins for a 1,437 total, which is sure to bring home some of the bacon. Lewis, of the Royals, led the candlepin bowling for the night with a set of 333.

The bowlers at the matines session of the tourney yesterday smashed the high marks for a fare-you-well. Washington's best tenpin bowlers were forced to take a few steps back in the doubles and singles in this class, while a few changes were made in the ranking of the high teams and individuals in the duckpin doubles and singles.

the high teams and individuals in the duckpin doubles and singles.

The Cream of Kentucky team from Buffalo jumped into prominence yesterday afternoon when its bowlers smashed the maples for keeps. In the tenpin doubles Dantz and G. Schawbi, of the Buffalo outfit, hit the pins for a count of 1,137. Although these Buffalo bowlers jumped into first position they were not the only ones to top our local cracks, Burdine and Eckstein, in this class, as Lambert and Kline, of the Tigers of Philadelphia, grabbed off second position with a count of 1,135, while Hartley and Barri, of the same team, landed third position with a count of 1,136.

Quite a few changes were made in the singles in the tenpin class, although the local bowler, Eckstein, is still perched in

The other four high positions in this class were changed, as Barri, of Philadelphia, were changed, as Barri, of Fhiladelphia, took second place with 565, while Solomon, of the Buffalo team, grabbed third honors with 562. Lambert, of the Quaker city team, made 551, which gives him fourth position, while Jacobsen, of the Reyal team of this city, scored 546, bringing him into fifth position.

But one change was made in the duckpin doubles. Conncanon and Johnson, of the Crescent team from Lowell, Mass., tied Crenshaw and Carter, jr., for fourth place with a set of 625.

In the duckpin singles T. F. Kelley smashed the mark made by Nick Chaconas by topping his figure of 346 by seven pins. Le Burn, of the Lowell outfit, also jumped into third place with a count of 328, which is two pins better than the marks of Wolsteinbolme and Worthing. marks of Wolsteinholme and Worthing ton, of Baltimore.

The largest matinee crowd of the tournament was on hand yesterday, rooting and pulling for Harry Krauss and Eddie McKnew, of the local crack tenpin spillers. Krauss and McKnew failed to liv up to expectation as neither tailled 500 game.

LADIES' NIGHT TO BE FEATURE OF WEEK

It is probable that Wednesday, April 19, will draw the banner crowd of the mammoth A. C. B. A. crowd of the mammoth A. C. B. A. tournament, now in progress at Camp Emery. Miss "Billy" Williams. Washington premiere, lady duckpin artist, and George L. Isemann, local little pin booster, are to have the evening in charge, and in addition to the rolling, expect to pull off many other interesting features.

A number of local and out-oftown teams have signified their intentions of entering, and it is more than likely that the twelve alleys in the large building will be occupied for the evening. Many will enter the singles and doubles, these events to be rolled the day before, April 18, probably in the afternoon.

Substantial prizes are to be awarded the winners, and each captain has expressed confidence in her team. Following are the probable entries: 1, Grand Cen-tral; 2, National Capitals; 3, Ar-Department Store; S. Regents, of Baltimore, Md.; S. Walbrook Ath-letic Club, of Baltimore, Md.; 10, Pete Maleney's Southenst Stars; 11, The Wonders, of Philadelphia, Pa., and 12, the American Lunch.

The Areade team, under the leadership of Miss Lena Lindig, expect to cut quite a figure this night, and is ably assisted by Mrs.
